

Birmingham Police Slay 11th Negro; Charge Prowling

Rudolph Wood, 19, of 8708 Seventh Avenue North, Zion City, last Friday night became the 11th Negro in the Birmingham area killed by law enforcement officers this year.

Allegedly "prowling" around the home of Lt. Colonel Orville Ly-saught, of 510 S 7th St. No., the youth was reportedly killed by police while fleeing from the scene.

Called to the home by the 15-year-old daughter of Colonel Ly-saught, who was home with her four-year old brother while her parents were away visiting, Police Officers H. W. Brewer, J. A. Hale and J. M. Lawson fired a volley of shots at the fleeing youth. One shot struck the youth dead.
