RACIAL REDRESS AND REPARATIONS:

Policy Approaches to Remediating Historical Racial Injustice

Wednesday, December 1, 2021 | 9am-12pm ET | Zoom

Recent years have seen heightened calls for the redress and remediation of historical racial injustice. Policymakers have responded with initiatives that take meaningful steps to address the United States' long legacy of racial violence and injustice.

This convening will take a close look at the current laws and proposals put forth by those legislators and public officials who are at the forefront of these efforts. The conference brings together lawmakers, academic experts, and advocates from across the country to explore legislative efforts to launch government-sponsored truth proceedings and reparations programs.
